- 11. Transfers from the Plan. Subject to any restrictions imposed by the Act, the property of the Plan may be transferred to the issuer of an RPP, LIRA, life annuity, a locked-in account of a voluntary retirement savings plan (if the plan is governed by a legislative authority other than the Quebec Parliament, the member must have joined the plan as part of their employment) or a LIF. If the Plan holds identifiable and transferable securities, the transfer or purchase referred to in paragraphs 11 and 12 may, unless otherwise stipulated, at the option of the Trustee, be effected by remittance of the investment securities of the Plan.

The Trustee will make the transfer within 30 days of the later of the receipt from the Annuitant of the properly documented transfer request and the maturity of the investment to be transferred.

- 12. If the Annuitant fails to provide satisfactory written instructions to the Trustee, by December 31 of that year, for the purchase of the annuity, the Trustee shall transfer the property of the Plan into a life income fund opened and registered by the Trustee for such purpose in the name of the Annuitant. It is the sole responsibility of the Annuitant to ensure that any such property is a qualified investment for a LIF and to convert any unqualified investment into cash. Upon transfer of such property or cash to the LIF:
- (a) if the Annuitant has a Spouse, the Spouse will be the beneficiary upon the Annuitant's death; otherwise, the Annuitant shall be deemed not to have elected to designate any beneficiary upon death; and
 - (b) the Annuitant shall be subject to all the terms and conditions of the immediate life annuity contract as stated in the documents pertaining thereto as if the Annuitant had at that time instructed the Trustee, to purchase the immediate life annuity and

13. Life Annuity. With the exception of the cases referred to in paragraphs 7, 10, 11, 14 and 15, the balance of the Plan may only be converted into a life pension guaranteed by an insurer and established for the duration of the life of the Annuitant alone or, if applicable, for the duration of the life of the Annuitant and the life of his Spouse where upon the death of the Annuitant, a pension of at least 60% of the amount of the pension to which the Annuitant would have been entitled is granted, unless waived by the Spouse. The periodic payments paid under that pension must be equal, unless each amount to be paid is uniformly increased by reason of an index or a rate provided for in the contract or uniformly adjusted by reason of a seizure effected on the benefits of the Annuitant, a redetermination of the Annuitant's pension, or the partition of the Annuitant's benefits with the Spouse, or by election provided for in subparagraph 3 of the first paragraph of Section 93 of the Act respecting Pension Legislation.

14. Option to Withdraw Small Balances. The entire balance of the Plan may be paid in a lump sum to the Annuitant on application to the Trustee accompanied with a declaration which conforms to the one prescribed in schedule 0.2 under the Regulations respecting Pension Legislation, on the following conditions:

(b) the total of the sums credited to the Annuitant in the retirement savings instruments mentioned in schedule 0.2 does not exceed 40% of the year's maximum pensionable earnings under the Quebec Pension Plan, for the year in which the Annuitant applies for payment.

15. Option to Withdraw due to Non-Residency. A lump sum withdrawal may be made if the Annuitant applies to the Trustee with written evidence that the Canada Revenue Agency has confirmed that he / she has become a non-resident for the purposes of the Act, provided that the terms of any investments have expired and that he / she has not resided in Canada for at least two years.

16. Payments or Transfers Contrary to Pension Legislation. If property is transferred or paid out of the Plan contrary to Pension Legislation, unless the payment or transfer is attributable to a false declaration by the Annuitant, the Trustee will pay the Annuitant, as a penalty, an amount equal to the irregular payment or transfer out of the Plan.

17. Spousal Waiver. The Annuitant's Spouse may waive the right to a life annuity as the surviving Spouse and may revoke the waiver. The Annuitant's Spouse must give the waiver before payments under the life annuity begin in the manner stipulated by Pension Legislation.

18. Prohibition. The property of the Plan may not be assigned, charged, alienated, anticipated or given as security or subjected to execution, seizure or attachment, except as permitted by Pension Legislation. A transaction that is contrary to this paragraph is void.

19. Amendments. From time to time, the Trustee may amend the Declaration of Trust (including this Addendum), if the amendment does not disqualify the Plan as a LIRA and if the amendment is filed with and approved by Canada Revenue Agency and the Regie des rentes du Quebec. The Trustee will provide the Annuitant with 90 days written notice (including notice and effective date of the Annuitant's entitlement to transfer the property out of the Plan) of any amendment that reduces benefits under the Plan.

The undersigned hereby certify that they have read the above provisions and understand that the funds transferred herein will be held in accordance therewith.
